Markley and Medford Presented DSCC Outstanding Alumni Award

Katherine Markley was a first generation nontraditional student. She graduated from Dyersburg State with an Associate of Science degree in Business in 2007. She is currently working on her bachelor's degree in Public Administration with a concentration in Organizational Leadership at East Tennessee State University.

Positions she has held since graduating Dyersburg State include service learning coordinator at Dyersburg State through Americorps Vista, sales representative at AT&T, and office manager at the Alex Haley Museum and Interpretive Center. Katherine currently works for Southwest Tennessee Development District in workforce development as a REDI mentor in Tipton County. She is also an instructor for the Capstone class at Munford High School in partnership with Tipton County and Haywood, Tipton, Lauderdale (HTL) Advantage.

She was awarded the Sam Walton Students in Free Enterprise (SIFE) Member Award and is currently a member of the Tipton County Community Alliance and the Tipton County Chamber of Commerce.

While attending Dyersburg State, Katherine was a Student Government Association representative at the DSCC Jimmy Naifeh Center at Tipton County, as well as a student ambassador and a member of Phi Theta Kappa (PTK).

When we asked Katherine what she liked best about her time at Dyersburg State, she said "DSCC made me feel welcome as a nontraditional student. Most of my instructors became mentors to me and my family. I enjoyed attending at a time when the Covington location was growing, and I was allowed to be a part of it. I am proud to be a DSCC alum. I wouldn't be where I am today without the work and support of Dr. Bowyer and DSCC."

Katherine resides in Atoka with her husband Christopher, also a Dyersburg State graduate. They have three children: Matthew, Hunter and Madison.

Tonya Medford graduated as a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) from Tennessee Technology Center in Covington in 1999. She graduated from Dyersburg State in 2009 with an Associate of Applied Science degree in Nursing. She is currently attending the University of Memphis and plans to graduate this summer with a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing.

As an LPN, she worked for Baptist Memorial Hospital-Tipton and the West Tennessee State Penitentiary. Upon graduation at Dyersburg State, she became a registered nurse (RN) at the Lauderdale County Health Department. For the past five years she has worked as a practical nursing instructor at the Tennessee College of Applied Technology (TCAT) in Ripley and Newbern.

Tonya was recently acknowledged by the Tennessee College of Applied Technology in Newbern for 10 years of service working for the State of Tennessee. She is a member of Dyersburg State’s Nursing Advisory Committee.

When asked why she chose Dyersburg State, she said “I chose Dyersburg State because of its familiarity and affordability. I grew to love the College because of the one-on-one interaction I was able to receive with my instructors as well as reliable resources.”

Tonya resides in Dyersburg with her husband Thaddaeus and their four children: Thaddaeus, Elijah, Aiyana and Kennedy.

U.S. Attorney Edward L. Stanton III was the guest speaker at the Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Luncheon Jan. 12 at Dyersburg State Community College (DSCC) inside the E.H. Lannom, Jr. Gymnasium. The event was co-hosted by DSCC and the Dyersburg/Dyer County Chamber of Commerce.

Guests enjoyed a special performance by the Dyersburg High School Advanced Choir, led by Director Christopher Davis. Opening remarks were given by Danny Watson, board chairman of the Dyersburg/Dyer County Chamber of Commerce, followed by an invocation by Rev. Ed White of First United Methodist Church in Dyersburg.

Stanton spoke on what he thought Dr. King’s message would be in this day and time if he were still here. He stated that he believed King would want us to major in the three C’s: the Courage to lead; the Commitment to serve; and the Compassion for our fellow man.

“We should never confuse the notion of ‘I’ve made it’ with ‘I’ve got it made,’” stated Stanton. “I believe that Dr. King would remind us that we should never just focus on our profession or jobs solely for the purported title and prestige. We must never forget to have compassion.”

Stanton is a lifelong Memphian and graduate of Central High School. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Memphis in 1994 and a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Memphis School of Law in 1997. On April 14, 2010, he was nominated for the position of United States Attorney for the Western District of Tennessee. In this position, Stanton is the chief federal law enforcement officer within the 22 counties that comprise the district.

In 2005, Stanton received the Memphis Bar Association’s Sam A. Myar, Jr. Award – one of the highest honors bestowed annually upon a lawyer for outstanding legal and community service. Stanton has launched a number of highly successful initiatives including a dedicated Civil Rights Unit, which has become a nationally recognized leader for its efforts in prosecuting sex trafficking crimes.

The Harlem Legends Celebrity Basketball Show Coming to Dyersburg State

The Dyersburg State Community College (DSCC) Alumni Association will host the Harlem Legends Celebrity Basketball Show Feb. 23, at 6 p.m., inside the E.H. Lannom, Jr. Gymnasium on the Dyersburg campus. A Harlem Legends Youth Clinic will be offered before the show.

The Harlem Legends, a group of former Harlem Globetrotters, NBA players, NFL players, USA Olympians and other professional athletes, will play against the Dyersburg State All-Stars. The Dyersburg State All-Star team will be comprised of alumni and local business and community leaders including mayors, coaches, teachers and more who have agreed to an evening of family fun as they challenge the Harlem Legends in a friendly game of hoops.

The Harlem Legends were founded by former Harlem Globetrotter and DSCC Alumnus Michael Douglas and are a part of the Michael Douglas Youth Foundation™ (MDYF). The Michael Douglas Youth Foundation is a nonprofit organization devoted to providing positive messages and activities for people of all ages. The Legends travel all over the country for speaking engagements, festival appearances, and youth basketball camps and clinics. More information can be found at www.harlemlegends.com.

Michael Douglas grew up in Memphis, Tennessee, and had a love for basketball at an early age. He was a standout athlete at Booker T. Washington High School and played for Dyersburg State Community College in 1979-80. In 1986, Michael tried out for the Harlem Globetrotters and was named the No. 1 pick among 1500 athletes. He toured with the Globetrotters from 1986-1993 and has traveled to over 100 countries entertaining crowds. In 1991, he founded the MDYF to provide communities with fun, educational activities and promote a model of healthy living to others. The Foundation helps raise funds for communities and nonprofit organizations around the country.

Youth ages 7-14 years old are invited to attend the Harlem Legends Youth Basketball Clinic beginning at 4 p.m. The cost to attend is $25 per child and includes admission to the 6 p.m. show, fun basketball instruction from the Harlem Legends, an autographed team photo and a workout booklet. The Clinic will also stress the importance of education and leading a drug-free lifestyle. The opportunity to purchase an autographed basketball from the team for $20 will also be available. The Youth Clinic is limited to 70 children.

The cost to attend the Harlem Legends Basketball Show at 6 p.m. is $10 general admission presale, $15 at the door, and $25 VIP admission. The VIP admission tickets include preferred seating, an autographed team photo, access to the hospitality suite before the game, and a meet and greet with the Harlem Legends at 5 p.m. VIP tickets are limited.

Sponsorships for the event are available and include a variety of benefits including tickets, autographed team photos and basketballs, and access to the hospitality suite before the game.

Youth Clinic registration forms can be picked up and tickets can be purchased at the Business Office inside the Eller Administration Building on the Dyersburg campus. For more information, contact Constance Clay at 731-286-3349 or clay@dsc.edu.

Alumni Scholarship Criteria and Deadline

The members of the DSCC Alumni Association Board have established the Alumni Scholarship for deserving students. Preference will be given to children of paid members of the Dyersburg State Alumni Association. A 100 word or less essay must be completed on "Why you feel you deserve to be awarded the DSCC Alumni Association Scholarship." The student must maintain a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 and must be enrolled as a full time student. The scholarship may be retained for a maximum of four semesters as long as criteria are met each semester and funding is available. The number of scholarships awarded, as well as their monetary value, varies from year to year. For more information, contact the Alumni Coordinator at 731-286-3347. Applications may be downloaded online at www.dsc.edu/alumni.
